PREAMBLE

The Government of the Republic of South Sudan (hereinafter referred to as the “GRSS”),

The Sudan People’s Liberation Movement/Army (in Opposition) (hereinafter referred to as (SPLM/A-IO),

The SPLM Leaders (Former Detainees),

The other Political Parties of South Sudan, in their individual capacities, jointly referred to as the “Parties” to this Agreement;

Joined by other Stakeholders: Representatives of CSOs, Women’s bloc, Faith-Based Leaders and Eminent personalities,

Acknowledging the need to promote inclusivity and popular ownership of this Agreement and hence create a mechanism to include individuals and organizations: Representatives of the country’s diverse communities, youth groups, traditional chiefs, professional societies, academia, business community and others whom shall be referred to as Adherents to this Agreement;

Committed to achieving enduring peace and stability in the Republic of South Sudan;

Accepting the immediate need to bring an end to the tragic conflict on-going in the Republic of South Sudan since 15 December 2013, which has had such disastrous economic, political and social consequences for the people of South Sudan;

Profoundly regretting the suffering and distress caused to the people of South Sudan by the conflict on-going in South Sudan since 15 December 2013 and apologising unconditionally to the people of South Sudan for all the suffering and distress caused by the devastation, loss of life and instability resulting from the conflict;

Acknowledging that social strife, disharmony between communities and mass violations of human rights has profound historical roots in our society, which pre-date the current conflict;

Committed to national reconciliation, accountability, healing and combating impunity among the highest priorities of the Transitional Government of National Unity (TGoNU),

Determined to build an inclusive and democratic society founded on the rule of law;

Firmly committed to end the culture of the use of force, as a means of settling differences and misunderstanding and to promoting a culture of peace and dialogue;

Cognizant that a Federal system of government is a popular demand of the people of South Sudan and of the need for the TGoNU to reflect this demand by way of devolution of more power and resources to lower levels of government, and to initiate that a federal and democratic system of governance that reflects the character of South Sudan and ensures unity in diversity be enacted during the permanent constitution making process;

Further accepting that the humanitarian situation in the Republic of South Sudan remains extremely precarious, and in need of urgent action by the Parties, the Transitional Government of National Unity and the international community;

Recognizing that all efforts must be made to continue and augment the provision and facilitation of humanitarian assistance and protection;

Convinced that the sharing and allocation of wealth emanating from resources in South Sudan shall ensure that the quality of life and dignity of all citizens are promoted without discrimination on the grounds of gender, religion, political affiliation, ethnicity, and language;

Appreciating the concerted efforts of all members of IGAD-PLUS and its Member States, and their leadership of the IGAD-led Mediation process for South Sudan;

Further appreciating the critical support provided by the international partners and friends of South Sudan;

Cognizant of the critical role played by the United Nations Mission in South Sudan in the discharge of its mandate including protection of civilians, and facilitation of humanitarian assistance;

Re-affirming existing commitments to the Cessation of Hostilities (CoH) Agreement of 23rd January 2014, its subsequent rededication and implementation matrix;

Recalling the 9th May 2014 Agreement to Resolve the Crisis in South Sudan and the 1st February 2015 Areas of Agreement on the Establishment of the Transitional Government of National Unity in the Republic of South Sudan;

Further re-affirming these commitments to form a Transitional Government of National Unity, comprising all the Parties, to lead South Sudan to democratic Elections and a permanent constitutional order;

Recognizing the need for institutional and structural reforms to ensure effective governance in the Republic of South Sudan, during the Transition, and thereafter;

Unreservedly committed to the terms of this agreement; hereinafter referred to as the Agreement and hereby agree as follows;

CHAPTER I: TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL UNITY (TGoNU)

- 7.3. The SDSR shall undertake a comprehensive assessment of the requirements of South Sudan's national army within one hundred and twenty (120) days from the signing of this Agreement to inform the formulation of the country's Defense and Security policies that shall subsequently lead to the overall Security Sector Transformation (SST) process, including the future command, function, size, composition and budget of South Sudan's national army and security forces, and DDR requirements.

- 7.4. The Board shall examine within one hundred and fifty (150) days of this Agreement, the military and non-military security challenges that affects the Republic of South Sudan (internally and externally), clarify the responsibilities of different bodies and agencies in responding to these security challenges including the management and oversight of the security sector; identify the mission, vision, specific role of the national army, and outline the programme and doctrine for its unification and modernization.
- 7.5. The SDSR Board shall provide the Roadmap for the Security Sector Transformation (SST), which outlines the details for the unification of the army, and security forces, Disarmament, Demobilization and Re-integration and the Security Sector Reform process. The Roadmap shall contribute to the amendment of Defence and Security-related legislations such as, National Security Services, SPLA, and Police Service Acts. The list of areas for reform identified by the Parties in this Agreement shall include but not limited to: Defence, Police, Correctional Service, Wildlife Service, Civil Defence, National Security and Intelligence, Private Security Organizations and any other institutions that play a role in managing and overseeing the design and implementation, such as Ministries, Parliament, Human Rights Commission and Civil Society Organizations, the De-Mining Authority, Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Commission, War Disabled, Widows and Orphans Commission, War Veterans Commission, Bureau for Community Security and Small Arms Control.
- 7.6. The SDSR process shall be comprehensive, inclusive, and transparent and underpinned by the principles and strategies of national interests in promoting and defending the sovereignty and dignity of the country and its people.

The SDSR shall be conducted in four (4) Stages:

Stage 1 (complete after one hundred twenty (120) days):

- a. Firstly, a strategic security assessment that examines the military and non-military security challenges that affects the Republic of South Sudan currently and in the future, including an analysis of all state, state-aligned and non-state, or other independent security actors and armed groups (drawing on the information provided by forces in cantonment);
- b. Secondly, a security policy framework, clarifying the responsibilities of different bodies and agencies in responding to these security challenges, including the management and oversight of the security sector;
- c. Thirdly, a revised defence policy, identifying the specific role and missions of the national army and outlining a vision for its unification and modernization.

Stage 2 (complete after one hundred and fifty (150) days);

- a. An analysis of the operational capabilities that South Sudan's national army will require to meet the challenges identified in Stage 1, and the supporting systems and structures that are needed to ensure effective utilization of these capabilities.
- b. The key output should be range of strategic models, specifying the level of human resources, equipment, and training needed to develop the military to respond to defence and security priorities, and the associated financial implications.

Stage 3 (executive approval after one hundred and eighty (180) days):

- a. The findings of Stage 2 are submitted to the political leadership for evaluation.
- b. Their task is to decide which model, or combination of models, best meets the needs of the nation, along with the level of expenditure required.
- c. The findings of the review should then be published in a white paper on Defence and Security and a Security Sector Transformation (SST) Roadmap, approved firstly by the Council of Ministers and then by the Transitional National Assembly.

Stage 4 (implementation):

- a. The SST Roadmap provides the details for the unification of the army and security forces, DDR and the SSR process.
 - b. The SST Roadmap provides details that will contribute to the amendment of defence and security related legislation such as, National Security Services, SPLA, and Police Service Acts.
 - c. In addition, the Ministers of Defence and Veterans' Affairs, National Security, and Interior produce annual plans to turn the Republic of South Sudan's vision of defence and security into practical, costed programs.
- 7.7. The TGoNU shall, through the SST roadmap, and within eighteen (18) months including the Pre-Transition Period focus on the unification and training of the army and security forces.

- 1.2. The legislation referred to in Article 1.1. shall clearly define the mandate and jurisdiction of the three institutions including but not limited to their establishment and funding, actors, and defined processes for public participation in the selection of their respective members.
- 1.3. Following their establishment, the CTRH, HCSS and CRA shall independently promote the common objective of facilitating truth, reconciliation and healing, compensation and reparation in South Sudan.
- 1.4. The TGoNU shall fully support and facilitate the operations of the CTRH and cooperate with the HCSS.
- 1.5. The TGoNU commits to fully cooperate and seek the assistance of the African Union, the United Nations and the African Commission on Human and People's Rights to design, to implement and to facilitate the work of the agreed transitional justice mechanisms provided for in this Agreement.

2. Commission for Truth, Reconciliation and Healing (CTRH)

2.1. Establishment of the Commission for Truth, Reconciliation and Healing (CTRH)

- 2.1.1 The TGoNU shall establish the CTRH as a critical part of the peace building process in South Sudan, to spearhead efforts to address the legacy of conflicts, promote peace, national reconciliation and healing.
- 2.1.2 The CTRH shall be established by legislation, which shall be promulgated not later than six (6) months after the formation of the TGoNU and commence its activities not later than a month thereafter. Such legislation shall, among others, outline mechanisms and methods for enabling the CTRH to discharge its duties and responsibilities.
- 2.1.3 The Ministry of Justice and Constitutional Affairs of the TGoNU, in collaboration with other stakeholders and the civil society, shall conduct public consultations for a period not less than one (1) month prior to the establishment of the CTRH, to inform the design of the legislation referred to in Chapter IV, Article (1.1). This notwithstanding, such consultations shall ensure that the experiences of women, men, girls and boys are sufficiently documented and the findings of such consultations incorporated in the resultant legislation.

- 2.1.4 The existing Committee for National Healing, Peace and Reconciliation (CNHPR) and the National Platform for Peace and Reconciliation shall transfer all of their files, records and documentation to the CTRH within fifteen (15) days since CTRH has become operational.
- 2.1.5 The CTRH shall recommend processes and mechanisms for the full enjoyment by victims of the right to remedy, including by suggesting measures for reparations and compensation. In the determination of such remedial processes and mechanisms, the CTRH shall draw on existing traditional practices, processes, and mechanisms, where appropriate.

2.2. Mandate and Functions of the CTRH:

- 2.2.1. Without prejudice to the administration of and access to justice, the CTRH shall inquire into all aspects of human rights violations and abuses, breaches of the rule of law and excessive abuses of power, committed against all persons in South Sudan by State, non-State actors, and or their agents and allies. In particular, the CTRH shall inquire into the circumstances, surrounding the aforementioned and any other connected or incidental matters. Such inquiry shall investigate, document and report on the course and cause conflict and identify or review cut-off timeframes for the operations of the CTRH, as may be determined by legislation, this Agreement or both. In that regard, the CTRH shall recommend processes for the full enjoyment by victims of the right to remedy, including by suggesting measures for reparations and compensation.
- 2.2.2. Without prejudice to its Mandate, the Functions of the CTRH are to:
 - 2.2.2.1. adopt, in the implementation of its mandate, best practices for promoting truth, reconciliation and healing from Africa and elsewhere;
 - 2.2.2.2. establish an accurate and impartial historical record of human rights violations, breaches of the rule of law and excessive abuses of power, committed by State and non-state actors from the date of signing of this Agreement to July 2005;
 - 2.2.2.3. receive applications from alleged victims, identify and determine their right to remedy;
 - 2.2.2.4. identify perpetrators of violations and crimes proscribed in this agreement;
 - 2.2.2.5. recommend guidelines, to be endorsed by the TNA, for determining type and size of compensation and reparation for victims, ;
 - 2.2.2.6. record the experiences of victims, including but not limited to women and girls;
 - 2.2.2.7. investigate the causes of conflicts and their circumstances and make recommendations regarding possible ways of preventing recurrence;
 - 2.2.2.8. develop detailed recommendations for legal and institutional reforms to ensure non-repetition of human rights abuses and violations, breaches of the rule of law and excessive use of power;
 - 2.2.2.9. lead efforts to facilitate local and national reconciliation and healing.

2.2.2.10. where appropriate, supervise proceeding of traditional dispute resolution, reconciliation, and healing mechanisms. In this regard, and without to traditional justice mechanisms, develop standard operating procedures for the functioning of the latter, in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

2.2.2.11. establish a secretariat that shall function as the administrative arm of the Commission and prepare guidelines and procedures for its proper functioning.

2.2.3. The CTRH shall issue quarterly progress reports updating the TGoNU on its progress in meeting its objectives. The CTRH shall make sustained efforts to publicly and regularly inform and involve the people of South Sudan in all of its tasks and activities and be responsible for carrying out public education, awareness-raising and civic engagement activities to inform the public, in particular with youth and women, about the Commission's work, and solicit continuous feedback.

2.2.4. The CTRH shall issue a final, public report at the conclusion of its mandate three months before the end of the Transition that shall include the observations and findings of its documentation activities and its recommendations for peace, reconciliation and healing in South Sudan.

2.3. Personnel and Appointment Procedures:

2.3.1. Commissioners, investigators and staff of the CTRH shall be persons of high moral character, impartiality and integrity. They shall be independent in the performance of their functions and shall not accept or seek instructions from any third party.

2.3.2. The CTRH shall be composed of seven (7) Commissioners, four (4) of whom shall be South Sudanese nationals, including two (2) women. The remaining three (3) Commissioners shall be from other African countries, of whom at least one (1) shall be a woman. The CTRH shall be chaired by a South Sudanese national, deputised by a non-South Sudanese national; .

2.3.3. The Executive of the TGoNU shall nominate the four Commissioners of South Sudanese nationality and present to the Transitional National Assembly solely on the basis of the selection of the TGoNU, AUC and UN for endorsement. Furthermore, the Executive of the TGoNU, in consultation with the Chairperson of the African Union Commission and the Secretary-General of the United Nations, shall nominate the three (3) from other African countries and present to the TNA for endorsement.

2.3.4. In order for the CTRH to execute its mandate, the Commission shall have the power to subpoena persons, documents and other materials deemed necessary for the purpose of discharging its responsibilities.
