Reference to the message no: 017/7/2015 from D/COG for Operation, advising me that the approvals of barge movement from Bor to Malakal to be suspended till further notice in regard to uncertainty of the safety of their passage along the Nile from Bor to Malakal.

Therefore, I hereby request you to discard all barges security clearance that were approved to Malakal and suspend these barge movements until further notice. All barges that have reached Malakal should remain in Malakal till they are notified of their Safe passage back to Juba.

You will be updated of any development when the situation avail itself.

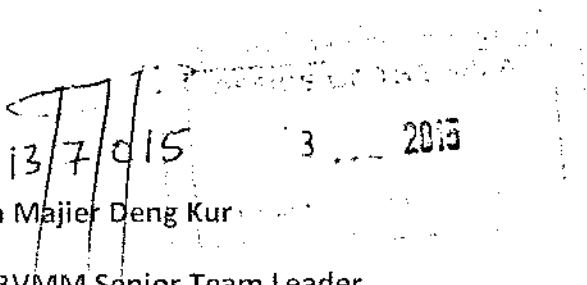

Attached here is the copy of the message from D/COGs of operations.

The SPLA GHQs deeply regret any inconvenience that might have been cause by this safe precautions, this is done for the safety of your personnel and equipments.

Please accept the assurance of my highest considerations.

Regards,
